White House Press Secretary Jennifer Psaki Finally Calls On Christian Reporter Regarding Anti-Semitism And Israel Without Acknowledging an Anti-Semitism Problem

By IMCNews White House Correspondent Dr. Harper Monday - April 25, 2022

(WASHINGTON, Dc)—The following questions were asked of White House Press Secretary Jennifer Psaki regarding Anti-Semitism but she refused to acknowledge the word or problem of Anti-Semitism in her reply. Watch this interchange at the following YouTube video link: <https://youtu.be/8yayNqPg94o>

Dr. Harper Question to Press Secretary Psaki Monday April 25, 2022:

Following recent Palestinian terror attacks from the Temple Mount and previous week of attacks that have killed many Israelis and wounded more, is the Biden Administration reconsidering its support of the Palestinian Authority's 2-state solution dividing Israel or stopping the welfare payments sent to the Palestinian Authority who use the money for their Pay to Slay reward system?" and I have a follow up question.

Press Secretary Psaki response:

Well, I would just note that I spoke to this last week on Wednesday where I noted that the United States is deeply concerned by the recent violence in Jerusalem on the Temple Mount across the West Bank and we also strongly condemn the recent rocket attack on Israel. You may or may not have seen also that the President conducted a call with Prime Minister Bennett. On Sunday morning he accepted an invitation by Prime Minister Bennett to visit Israel in the coming months with no specific date yet he took note of the ongoing efforts between Israeli and Palestinian officials to lower tensions and

20th Anniversary Celebration of Treasure Valley/InterMountain Christian News

by IMCNews Editor and White House Correspondent Rev. Anthony Harper, Ph.D. June 27, 2022

(BOISE, Id)--All praise to GOD for His help in sustaining me and my family and this newspaper ministry these last 20 years! It is truly a miracle only He could do! At the beginning of this ministry, I did not know if we would survive the first year, but to GOD be all the Glory.

While working in Christian ministry in Boise, Idaho, it became apparent to me that there was a need for a local nondenominational Christian news source that would serve the Christian community and give them a united voice in reaching the unchurched.

In November of 2001, the decision was made to develop the Christian resource website 'Christian Resources and Events Directory' to help connect people to The Gospel message and to a local Christian church which eventually developed into Treasure Valley Christian News and in August of 2008 expanded into InterMountain Christian News.

The Christian Newspaper Association (CNA) in early 2002 was brought to my attention (the CNA was helping connect people to Christian resources and events through their member newspapers. It was an inspiration to me to know of other Christian newspapers. A volunteer of our paper Ken Cross and I traveled to Portland, Oregon later in the year to meet with one of the CNA member publishers John Fortmeyer and his advertising representative Eric Stiller with the 'Christian News Northwest (CNNW)'. John and Eric were such a great source of encouragement to me in the development of our newspaper.

On June 27 of 2002, the 'Christian Resources and Events Directory' was renamed 'Treasure Valley Christian News' and

Biden Taps Anti-Israel Activist, CNN Spouse as White House Press Secretary

Reprinted with permission, Washington Free Beacon
Adam Kredo • May 5, 2022 6:00 pm

The White House announced on Thursday that Karine Jean-Pierre, a veteran anti-Israel activist who is a partner to CNN correspondent Suzanne Malveaux, will replace outgoing press secretary Jen Psaki, raising potential ethical quandaries.

The announcement drew celebratory headlines in the mainstream press: Jean-Pierre is the first black woman and openly gay person to serve in the role.

But her relationship with the CNN reporter raises ethical questions about her new role. The White House did not respond to a request for comment about whether Jean-Pierre would recuse herself in dealing with CNN. Malveaux's colleagues include Valerie Jarrett's daughter, CNN justice correspondent Laura Jarrett, and Israel ambassador Tom Nides's wife, Virginia Moseley, who serves as CNN's senior vice president of news gathering.

"Suzanne Malveaux will continue in her role as CNN national correspondent covering national/international news and cultural events but will not cover politics, Capitol Hill, or the White House while Karine Jean-Pierre is serving as White House press secretary," a CNN spokesperson told the Washington Free Beacon.

Jean-Pierre's anti-Israel past—which includes a stint as senior adviser and national spokeswoman for MoveOn.org, a far-left anti-Israel group that advocates for boycotts of the Jewish state—is raising red flags in the pro-Israel community. The selection of an Israel critic is also likely to further strain ties with the pro-Israel community and Israeli government, which already is strongly opposed to the Biden administration's efforts to ink a new nuclear deal with Iran.

Jean-Pierre has been open about her animosity toward the Jewish state. She has accused Israel of committing "war crimes" and has backed efforts to boycott the American Israel Public Affairs Committee, the United States' most prominent pro-Israel lobbying shop, cheering Democrats in 2019 for boycotting the group's annual gathering in Washington, D.C., for "boldly [choosing] to prioritize diplomacy and human rights over the power of a lobbying organization." AIPAC, she claimed, helped the Trump administration "sabotage" the Iran nuclear deal and also "supported the group that's credited with inspiring President Trump to enact the Muslim Ban and has been known to spread anti-Muslim racism." She accused the group without evidence of trafficking in "severely racist, Islamophobic rhetoric."

Ellie Cohan, who served as the State Department's deputy special envoy to monitor and combat anti-Semitism during the Trump administration, told the Free Beacon that Jean-Pierre's promotion sends the wrong signal during a time of rising anti-Semitism.

"Joe Biden's promotion of Jean-Pierre signals to all would-be Israel haters that their efforts will be rewarded with White House appointments and promotions," Cohan said. "At a time of rising anti-Semitism in America, Biden's promotion of Jean-Pierre is exactly the wrong signal to send."

It was attended by many that share an interest in understanding the issues surrounding the nation of Israel and the Jewish people, the rise of Anti-Semitism around the world, on our college campuses and universities has reached an all-time high.

The evening event was highlighted by Pastor Dave McGarrah, Idaho State representative for CUFI, Best Selling Author & Creator of Master Minded Ministries a vehicle that hosts Pro-Israel projects like: - The Teacher and the Preacher radio and pod casts.

Pastor David as guest speaker provided an in-depth presentation that was both inspirational and informative on the Biblical and historical justifications in supporting Israel and the Jewish people, the misinformation and lies of the BDS movement that promotes Anti-Semitism and what CUFI is doing to combat it in our local communities, on a state level and in our nation's capital.

32 Navy TOP GUN or USAF Fighter Pilots Face Boot for Religion

by PIJN News May 26, 2022

(COLORADO SPRINGS, Co)--According to new whistleblower documents provided to Congress, a survey revealed 357 military pilots (and countless other war fighting specialists) have refused mandates on religious grounds, and face involuntary discharge from the service in weeks ahead.

“Among 357 pilots [refusing the mandate] surveyed the DOD stands to lose:

- 7.8 Billion in tax dollars spent on their training
- 4,842 years of cumulative service
- 14 years average highly experienced aviators
- 677,324 cumulative flight hours experience,
- 135,416 combat hours
- 69% are instructor pilots
- 9% or 32 are Air Force Weapons Instructors or Navy TOPGUN graduates.”

So when you see Tom Cruise in TOP GUN (below), that’s who Biden is firing in real life x 32.

NBC News and AP confirm: “Across the military, the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps have discharged nearly 4,000 active duty service members for refusing the vaccine. According to recent data released by the services, more than 2,100 Marines, 900 sailors, 500 Army soldiers and 360 airmen have been thrown out of the military, and at least 50 were discharged during entry level training, before they moved into active duty service.”

And ZERO religious waivers are granted to Air Force servicemen unless they’re retirement age.

Sadly this week, the three senior cadets at the Air Force Academy were NOT permitted to participate in their own graduation ceremony.

“The academy said its board recommended all three cadets receive their bachelor’s degrees, but ‘while they will receive a degree, they will not be commissioned into the United States Air Force as long as they remain unvaccinated,’” reports The Gazette.

Commissioning ceremonies into the Air Force and Space Force are separate from the graduation at Falcon Stadium, said 1991 AFA graduate Gordon Klingenschmitt, an evangelical activist and former Navy chaplain who has championed the cadets’ plight since the military vaccine requirement went into place last year.

After the Wednesday ceremony, Klingenschmitt said he spoke with one of the cadets and was told that the three seniors — evangelical Christians who refused vaccinations on ethical grounds because of objections about how some the vaccines are tested — were told that they were not allowed to participate or be “on the ground where people were throwing their hats and high-fiving and saluting.”

Instead, they were allowed to watch from the bleachers.

“They were just spectators like their parents were,” said Klingenschmitt.

Two cadets chose to attend the ceremony, he said. One did not.

“His heart was so broken. He told me it would have been depressing to even be there to watch, so he stayed out,” said Klingenschmitt.

Whether senior cadets who refused the vaccine will be on the hook to repay almost $200,000 in tuition each remains to be seen, according to the Air Force Academy.

“A decision to reimburse the United States for education costs in lieu of service will be made by the secretary of the Air Force,” the academy said.

Court-martials? Prison? No graduation ceremony for Senior Cadets

“Three U.S. Air Force Academy cadets whose refusal to get COVID-19 vaccines threatened their May 25 graduation — along with the risk of a repayment demand for six-figure tuition costs — will be awarded their degrees, officials said Saturday,” reports WashTimes on the front page...

However, the Academy stated, “they will not be commissioned into the United States Air Force as long as they remain unvaccinated,” and Air Force Secretary Frank Kendall will decide whether the graduates must “reimburse the United States for education costs in lieu of service.”

According to attorney Mike Rose, the unvaccinated cadets will not be allowed to attend the

by Camilla Hicks Thursday - May 26, 2022

(CASPER, Wy)--On the eve of thanks to those countrymen and women who have served — Memorial weekend — a final call went out for volunteers. “Please send your T - shirt size and your name to confirm your volunteer status. Without your help we couldn’t do this.” These words echoed from the Event Coordinator, who was equipping the volunteers. The excitement, anticipation and goal were to get all preparations together as easily and quickly as possible.

Why wait till the last minute? Time is of the essence. Who’s committed?

Volunteers for this event are generally from all walks of life. They are driven, motivated, and ambitious to be a single piece of a bigger picture. It’s more than having a seat on the floor, or possibly getting the magic ticket to the keynote speaker, or experiencing the smile that charges up the spectators. It encompasses an historical moment. Together, we make up “The Brand” <https://cowboylethics.org/cowboy-ethics/>.

Volunteers moved stage furniture, put bunting up, set up tables and assist the facility staff, while all the time anticipating the next phase. There are moments of unknowns; however, eyes are on the prize with expectancy, “Wow, Former President Trump is coming to Wyoming.” There is a need for truth, and we need to support people of value through the unwritten cultural rules and the rule of law.

A recent two-volume publication by Iain McGilchrist, “The Matter with Things”, <https://channelmcgilchrist.com/the-matter-with-things/>, explains the decline of our culture. He stated “Indeed, if you had set out to destroy the happiness and stability of a people, it would have been hard to improve on our current formula; repudiate the continuity of your culture; believe you are wise enough to do whatever you happen to want and not only get away with it, but have a right to it – and a right to silence those who disagree; minimize the role played by a common body of belief (God); actively attack and dismantle every social structure as a potential source of oppression; and reject the idea of a transcendent set of values (God’s laws).”

White House Communications Director Kate Bedingfield Refuses To Answer Simple Question About Israel Bombing Iran's Nuclear Reactors, Mocks Reporter For Asking The Question

Gateway Pundit, reprinted with permission by Alicia Powe
Published April 1, 2022 at 3:30pm

White House communications director Kate Bedingfield refused to address whether the Biden administration would take measures against Israel over reports of the country's repeated attempts to bomb Iran's nuclear reactors.

The Iranian government claims Israel has repeatedly attempted to sabotage its nuclear program following the suspension of the Democrat-led 2015 Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action nuclear deal, an agreement that former President Donald Trump pulled out of in 2018.

Last month, Iranian authorities arrested operatives allegedly linked to Israel for attempting to demolish its nuclear Fordo facility, Iran's second uranium enrichment plant.

Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps intelligence unit claims the perpetrators "planned on sabotaging the Fordo facility and were arrested by the intelligence services of the Revolutionary Guards".

It remains unclear whether Israel is actually involved in the plot to demolish the nuclear facility or if Iran is scapegoating the Jewish state.

When asked by White House correspondent Anthony Harper during a press briefing this week whether the Biden administration would take action against Israel for its alleged attempts to attack Iran's nuclear reactors, Bedingfield mockingly laughed at Harper and changed the subject.

"I am not going to get into that kind of hypothetical," the White House spokesperson, who made her first-ever appearance at the White House briefing room lectern on Tuesday, scoffed.

"But thank you for asking the question," she added while condescendingly chuckling.

Bedingfield's evasion of questions surrounding escalating tensions between Iran and Israel comes as Republican lawmakers warn against the Biden 2015 nuclear accord deal with Tehran would deter Iran from developing nuclear weapons.

The Biden administration believes that "the return to full implementation" of the deal was "the best way to put Iran's program back in the box that it was in but has escaped since the United States withdrew from the agreement," Blinken said.

"When it comes to the most important element, [Israel and the US] see eye to eye. We are both committed, both determined, that Iran will never acquire a nuclear weapon," he continued.

administration's plans to remove Iran's Revolutionary Guard Corps from the Foreign Terrorist Organization list as part of efforts to revive the 2015 JCPOA nuclear deal.

In a March 22 letter to Secretary of State Antony Blinken, more than 80 Republicans sounded the alarm on the Biden administration's effort "to legitimize the IRGC's reckless, destabilizing, and antisemitic actions throughout the Middle East."

"The IRGC continues to actively participate in acts of terror and destabilizing actions in the region—particularly against one of our closest allies, Israel. It is also a chief supporter and enabler of other FTOs and insurgent groups in the region. These organizations include, but are not limited to: Hezbollah, Hamas, Palestinian Islamic Jihad, and the Houthis insurgency," they wrote. "The IRGC's actions have led to decades of instability and conflict across the Middle East and the group is responsible for countless deaths, including more than 600 U.S. troops during the occupation of Iraq."

Blinken vowed on Sunday during a news conference in Jerusalem with Israel Foreign minister Yair Lapid, that the United States and Israel are committed to ensuring Iran does not acquire a nuclear weapon but insisted on a reimplementation of the

In Little Wyoming Community, Pushback Has Paid Off

Charlie Butts

Reprinted from One News Now by permission (OneNewsNow.com)

In little Wyoming community, pushback has paid off

Concerned citizens who are determined to fight filth and left-wing activism in their community can take a lesson from a rural Wyoming county, where a grassroots effort is paying off after people took a stand.

AFN has reported on the standoff in Campbell County, Wyoming, where citizens spoke out when they learned sexually graphic books were on display for children in the Gillette Public Library.

Dan Becker of Wyoming Mass Resistance tells AFN two of the books have been moved to the adult section, and away from the innocent eyes of children, but he says the pushback has produced more results than that. A county commissioner has stepped down and then the county administrator quit, too.

"And then we also had the head of the library board, first she resigned from being the head of the board," Becker says. "And then she resigned completely from the board."

The resignations didn't come without pushback: Last fall, the county commission voted 3-2 to end public comments because of the parade of county residents who took turns complaining about the books and the pro-LGBT stance of the library.

Mass Resistance, however, won that battle, too. The county commission brought back the public comment time in February, four months later, after a pro-family person joined the public board. The vote was 5-0.

Leaked Supreme Court Draft Opinion Overturning Roe v Wade Triggers Huge Protest

by IMCNews White House Correspondent, Dr. Anthony Harper

May 5, 2022

(WASHINGTON, Dc)--A U.S. Supreme Court leaked draft opinion authored by Justice Samuel Alito with four other justices of Amy Coney Barrett, Brett Kavanaugh, Clarence Thomas and Neil Gorsuch angered a lot of pro Abortion advocates resulting in a huge protest at the Supreme Court May 3, 2022. That draft opinion recommended that Roe v Wade be abolished federally and to return this issue to the states. Contrary to what the White House and pro Abortion advocates are saying, this leaked opinion would not result in Abortion outlawed on a federal level. The formal ruling on this matter is not expected till mid Summer.

At the Supreme Court there was a long time pro-life person by the first name of Joan that has been there in defense of a child's right to life. She was harassed by the pro abortion crowd and was calling for a large turnout of Christians in this nation to join her at the Supreme Court of the supreme in defense of a child's right to life.

Joan, a long time pro life supporter was there on May 3rd, made the following statements while thousands of people came down here yesterday and today to support child killing. We need to pray to end abortion. Prayer is the answer to ending abortion. Our young people are misguided, they're told this is a good idea to be child killing, it's not. Love every child. Welcome every child. Please pro-lifers watching, please come to D.C. and stand in front of the Supreme Court. Help these children, these young people, see the people that say love your children."

In the Preamble of The Declaration of Independence it says that "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness."

Gideon Testimony: Sandy Boyd Story

Source: <https://gideons.org/blog>

I was raised in Southern California with two older sisters. Our grandmother introduced us to witchcraft at a young age. She gave us incantation books and taught us how to cast spells. We would do seances with our friends down the street, and we thought this was normal. As I grew older, my dad had taken it a step further. Not only was he involved in the occult, but he got involved in satanism. My dad introduced me to drugs for the very first time when I was only nine years old. By the time I was 11, I was addicted to these drugs, and I was a willing participant in the occult activity.

By the time I turned 17 years old, I had decided to run away from home. I dropped out of school thinking there had to be a better way. I didn't know what I was searching for exactly, but I knew that I had a desire in my heart for someone to love me. Living in California at the time, and in pursuit of this longing, I ran to Washington State. Still addicted to drugs, I did whatever I could to get the drugs without having to turn back to my dad. He always seemed to catch up with me and had people watching to keep tabs on me.

"I had a desire in my heart for someone to love me."

I ended up getting married and having a son. I thought that changing my identity would keep my family from finding me. I was still an addict; I was prostituting myself at night and being a mother to my son during the day. I tried to keep custody of my son because he was the only person who loved me unconditionally. That lasted for about a year and a half, and my husband filed for divorce.

I lived in the front seat of my car and had a part-time job trying to cover up my lifestyle. The authorities caught up with me within two weeks, and I lost total custody of my son without visitation. Part of my heart left that day when they took my son. I began prostituting myself again. I ended up in Texas, met someone else, and tried to continue to change my identity. I got together with him and had a little girl. My dad showed up at my front door about three weeks after I had moved to Texas. And once again, that vicious cycle just continued. I was pretty much convinced at the time that there was no way out of this lifestyle. My husband and I ended up divorcing, and shortly after, I received custody of my little girl. I moved in with my sister, who had just gotten out of the psychiatric hospital.

One night, as I lay in my bed, I felt something nudge the bottom of my bed. I sat up and saw about an eight-foot-tall, hooded figure standing at the edge of my bed. He pointed to me and said, "It's time." I did not understand what that meant. After all my involvement in the occult, I had never encountered an entity like this before. I knew that this was something significant. He continued, "It's time now for you to teach your daughter what your grandmother taught you." Little did I know that my grandmother had passed away three weeks prior. I knew at this moment a continued cycle was supposed to go from my grandmother to myself to my children.

Join us June 29th at the Idaho Center for a night of family-friendly fun, including the Treasure Valley's largest fireworks show, great Christian bands, military appreciation, civic awards, food and fellowship. FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY! A FREE Event!

The God and Country Festival began during a movement organized by western actor Chuck Connors during the sixties to promote our country's founding ideals and faith in God. Nampa held its first rally back in 1967. When the event moved to the Idaho Center in 2000, the name was changed from "God and Country Rally" to "God and Country Festival."

About the Festival

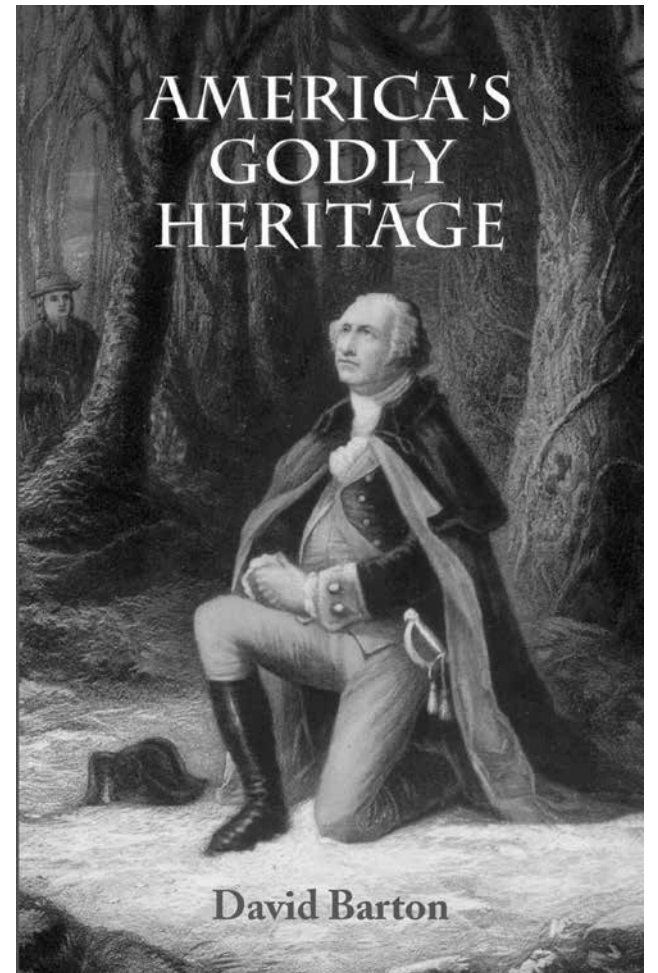

God and Country Festival in Nampa, Idaho is organized by a volunteer-driven organization called the God and Country Association, Inc. The organization is made up of Christians who are committed to strengthening the fabric of the Treasure Valley community through the Good News of Jesus Christ. We are also interested in helping believers around the nation get an independent God and Country event started.

We believe that Christians in America should have a natural affection for their country because it was founded on the godly ideal that liberty is derived, not as a gift of governments and politicians, but as a gift of our Creator.

On September 6, 1774, the first American Congress met in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, opening with prayer by the Rev. Jacob Duche. The Congress read from four chapters in the Bible, including Psalm 35.

This booklet by Mr. Barton packs into 52 pages documents and history giving definite proof of America's Godly heritage, as can be found in tens of thousands of historic documents.

Today few know that of the fifty-six Founding Fathers who signed the Declaration of Independence in 1776, over half had received degrees from schools that today would be considered seminaries or Bible schools.

This reviewer highly recommends owning and learning this small scholarly work. It is part of a suggested Bible study which may someday be offered as a voluntary subject in the public schools. The reader is encouraged to consider this as a school policy.

Web Designer May Force High Court to Decide Lingering Issue of Free Speech

Web designer may force high court to decide lingering issue of free speech

The law firm representing a Colorado website designer is making First Amendment arguments before the U.S. Supreme Court after a federal court agreed her free-speech rights are in jeopardy but still upheld a controversial state law.

Lorie Smith, who owns 303 Creative, offers graphic design and website design services in the Denver area. She stumbled into legal trouble, however, in a situation now familiar to much of the public when she challenged an anti-discrimination law because she foresaw a moral conflict over promoting a same-sex wedding.

"Wedding websites offer a natural fit for my skills but in today's culture that immediately raises the question of promoting not only unions between a man and a woman, but same-sex ceremonies too," Smith explains. "My religious beliefs won't allow me to promote the second option. I can't create a site that would celebrate views contrary to my beliefs."

with them and thus began a lengthy court fight. Phillips lost in court after court until finally, at the U.S. Supreme Court, the justices ruled in 2018 the state commission had treated Phillips unfairly because of blatant anti-religious views among its members.

That decision was 7-2, a lopsided victory for Phillips, but Justice Clarence Thomas (pictured below) complained in his opinion that his fellow justices had made a narrow ruling that avoided the First Amendment issue central to the case.

Phillips has said he does not keep homosexuals and lesbians from entering his bakery, or refuse to sell them products off the shelf, but he refuses to use his artistic talents to design a product, a same-sex wedding cake, that he considers offensive to his religious beliefs.

That argument, however, has failed to win over judges and justices during the six-year legal battle.

Alliance Defending Freedom, which defended Phillips, has now filed an opening brief with the Supreme Court on behalf of Smith. It learned in February the court will hear her appeal.

"If the government has the power to force Lorie to speak messages that she disagrees with," says ADF attorney Kristen Waggoner, "it can force anyone of us

Police Departments in Meridian and Boise, Idaho, Will Increase Patrols Around Stanton Healthcare After Recent Attacks, Threats and Vandalism Against Pro-Life Centers Across the Country

May 10, 2022

Christian NewsWire

(BOISE, Id)--/Christian NewsWire/ -- Stanton Healthcare, based in Meridian, has life-affirming clinics in Idaho and affiliates across America and internationally. Stanton provides compassionate and professional women's healthcare along with holistic services to women experiencing an unexpected pregnancy.

Stanton has taken extra steps to ensure the safety of their clients, volunteers, and staff – including securing the assistance of local law enforcement to increase patrols around their Boise and Meridian clinics which are located steps away from Planned Parenthood abortion facilities.

Stanton's Director of Operations, Nancy Ferris, shared:

"We have reviewed our safety procedures with staff and volunteers regarding harassment and violence. We had our alarm systems tested and spoke with the Meridian and Boise Police Departments who will increase patrols around both clinics. It is horrific to know some people choose violence to express their opinions and disappointment in a decision that saves the lives of babies."

Stanton Healthcare is encouraging all life-affirming clinics to be extra cautious during the coming weeks.

Linda Thomas, Director of Community Outreach, stated:

"There is nothing more important to us at Stanton than valuing and protecting life – the lives of mothers and the lives of their children. Unlike the abortion industry and its allies, we never pit a mother against her child. Instead, we love them both and protect them both. We are thankful to our local law enforcement for their responsiveness and duty to protect, as well.

"We urge all life-affirming pregnancy clinics to contact your local police department and ask for increased patrols around your center. The safety of the women and children we serve is paramount."

Values May Not Matter, But Cash Does

Charlie Butts May 11, 2022 Reprinted from One News Now by permission (OneNewsNow.com)

With help from lawmakers who share their traditional values, parents finally have the attention of the state's libraries.

Parents in Idaho have been critical of libraries for promoting books on homosexuality, transgenderism, and the like in the children's sections. Since the libraries chose to ignore those concerns, state Representative Julianne Young (R) took up the banner in the legislature to correct the situation.

"In this particular situation, the library association was just kind of thumbing their nose at the concerns that had been raised and had not been willing to come to the table in any way," Young reports. "In fact, they were working very hard to undermine efforts to address these important concerns."

So the state legislature passed a bill that cut $4 million in funds, mostly federal, from going to Idaho's libraries. Young tells American Family News the lawmakers deemed the material in question to be so inappropriate that they would not even read it themselves.

"The examples that were provided to us were so offensive and so objectionable in terms of graphic sexual content that we were not allowed to distribute them on the House floor," the representative reports. "We can't print them in a newspaper alongside an article about the bill."

So the adults in politics would not subject themselves to the content that libraries are encouraging their young visitors to read.

Now that the money has been withdrawn from the libraries, officials are willing to sit down and discuss the issue. That will likely happen this summer.

Why Am I Here?
 How Do I Beat This
 Who is
 What Makes My Life
 So Hard
 Where is That One
 Special Relationship?

JESUS is GOD the SON
(CREATOR of the Universe and all Life!)

Hebrews 1:2-3 NIV

2 ...in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the universe.

3 The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word.

Hebrews 3:3-4 NIV

3. Jesus has been found worthy of greater honor than Moses, just as the builder of a house has greater honor than the house itself.

4. For every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything.

THE SAVIOR (GOD in human form)
born of the Virgin Mary

Matthew 1:23 NIV

"The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel" - which means, "God with us."

Isaiah 9:6 NIV

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace."

John 8:23-24 NIV

23. But he continued, "You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. 24. I told you that you would die in your sins; if you do not believe that I am [the one I claim to be], you will indeed die in your sins."

John 14:6 NIV

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

No other person can save you or give you hope and eternal life.

How to know JESUS as your personal Savior:

If you would like to know JESUS as your personal Savior from sin, pray the following prayer followed by studying The Holy Bible and get involved with a local Christian church.

Pray this sincere prayer, meaning it with all your heart, and God will give you eternal life, right now!

"Dear Lord, I am a sinful person who needs You. I turn from my sins and surrender my heart and life to You, right now. Save me dear God and make me Your child. thank You for coming to Bethlehem, and for dying for me to pay for my sins. Help me to live for You all the rest of my life." Amen.

If you have accepted JESUS as your personal SAVIOR from sin, obey Him and get involved with a good Bible-believing church, study the Bible daily, seek Him with all your heart daily, and share The Gospel with all those around you. We must be doers of the word, not hearers only.

Repent

“Now in those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, saying, ‘Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.’” (Matthew 3:1-2)

I recently returned from a VBB trip to Honduras. During the trip we visited many schools, sometimes engaging the entire school and sometimes going from classroom to classroom. The images of the hundreds of polite, uniform-clad children listening to us and gratefully accepting the gifts we brought will stay with me forever.

Through the testimonies we gave, the gifts, tracts, and hugs we shared, and the messages preached through word and skit (based on the Prodigal Son story), I’m sure we made an impact on many hearts.

Upon my return to the U.S., I came across a Facebook post challenging Christians to keep the message of repentance central to our preaching. I felt convicted, as I had been focusing more on God’s love on my trip. And God is love. But the message of the Gospel is not simply “God loves you.”

I felt convicted, as I had been focusing more on God’s love on my trip. And God is love. But the message of the Gospel is not simply “God loves you.” is that He loves you so much that He died for you to take away the penalty for your sins. Without Jesus, we stand condemned. We are unrighteous, guilty, and burdened by our crimes. Through repentance, we find forgiveness, freedom from guilt, and hope!

To refuse to repent is to assert that you can stand before God on Judgment Day on your own merits. It is to deny you are a sinner who has fallen short of God’s perfect standards. And it is utterly unloving to endanger souls by giving them a partial gospel that may feel good but fails to reconcile them with God.

“God is a righteous judge,
And a God who has indignation every day.
If a man does not repent, He will sharpen His sword;
He has bent His bow and made it ready.” (Psalm 7:11-12)

Rubio, Colleagues Introduce Bill to Protect Air Force Cadets, Midshipmen From Being Punished for Not Receiving Covid-19 Vaccine

Marco Rubio Press Release

May 25, 2022

(WASHINGTON, D.c.) — U.S. Senator Marco Rubio (R-FL) and colleagues introduced the Defending Freedom of Conscience for Cadets and Midshipmen Act. The legislation would protect cadets and midshipmen at the U.S. Air Force Academy (USAFA), U.S. Naval Academy, U.S. Military Academy, U.S. Coast Guard Academy, and U.S. Merchant Marine Academy from being punished for their choice to not receive the COVID-19 vaccine. USAFA recently announced that unvaccinated seniors would not be commissioned. Cadets and midshipmen who do not commission could be forced to repay tuition, room, and board expenses for their time at the Academy. Senators Roger Marshall (R-KS), Mike Crapo (R-ID), Jim Risch (R-ID), Mike Braun (R-IN), Ron Johnson (R-WI), Kevin Cramer (R-ND), Cindy Hyde-Smith (R-MS), Rick Scott (R-FL), Roger Wicker (R-MS), John Hoeven (R-ND), and Steve Daines (R-MT) are original cosponsors. U.S. Representative Doug Lamborn (R-CO) will introduce companion legislation in the U.S. House of Representatives.

“It is outrageous to punish young men and women who want nothing more than to serve their nation,” Rubio said. “These are the types of ridiculous, unnecessarily punitive measures that discourage patriotic Americans from joining the military. The Academy should stop playing politics and focus on preparing cadets and midshipmen for their future

“Joe Biden’s outrageous and plain mean-spirited vaccine tyranny knows no bounds – now punishing aspiring heroes who have earned the honor of joining the officer ranks,” Marshall said. “I’m thankful to Senator Rubio for leading this effort to protect these patriotic Americans.”

“The decision to end promising military careers solely based on a COVID vaccine seems punitive and another example of clumsy government overreach,” Hyde-Smith said. “The cadets and midshipmen at our service academies are among the brightest in the country, and they shouldn’t be dismissed so flippantly.”

“It is shameful to punish these cadets and diminish their commitment to serve our nation over a single personal health decision,” Scott said. “I am proud to join Senator Rubio on this common sense measure to protect the cadets and midshipmen of our nation’s service academies.”

“Forcing our brave young men and women preparing to serve our nation to violate their consciences and religious beliefs is ridiculous and completely un-American. Military academies should be focused on training their cadets and midshipmen, not imposing top-down COVID-19 vaccine mandates,” Cramer said.

“The dedicated cadets and midshipmen at our military service academies deserve nothing short

“And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee...”
- Genesis 12:3 (KJV)

We believe that the Jewish people have a right to live in their ancient land of Israel, and that the modern State of Israel is the fulfillment of this historic right.

We maintain that there is no excuse for acts of terrorism against Israel and that Israel has the same right as every other nation to defend her citizens from such violent attacks.

We pledge to stand with our brothers and sisters in Israel and to speak out on their behalf whenever and wherever necessary until the attacks stop and they are finally living in peace and security with their neighbors.

The Scriptures promise blessings upon those who love the nation of Israel, and CUFI has prayerfully searched for a way to honor and bless those who have chosen to be part of this holy move of God.

Picture above: Our first print edition of the Treasure Valley Christian News (December 2002) that eventually developed into the InterMountain Christian newspaper was incorporated in Idaho as a nonprofit 501 c3 printed newspaper. The initial board members were Ron Coleman, Jeff Anderson and myself.

It was my prayer for a Christian graphic artist with experience in helping me to develop our newspaper. Shortly after I asked a local Wedding Events Guide publisher Julie Kirkpatrick if she knew of someone to help me with our paper and she introduced me to her graphic artist Larry Patrick. Larry was that answer to prayer I thank GOD for and he joined me in the summer of 2002 to begin work on our first printed newspaper.

On June 24 of 2008 our newspaper expanded to all of southern Idaho, eastern Oregon, Utah and Wyoming and was renamed 'InterMountain Christian News.' In January of 2009 IMCNews expanded to Colorado and in 2010 to Reno/Sparks, Nevada and the Big Sky state of Montana. IMCNews is now serving 7 states in our intermountain area.

InterMountain Christian news is distributed in the secular arena online at www.imcnews.org, at airports, tire dealerships, doctor offices, etc.

Inside each printed issue of IMCNews and on our website, we have a 'Who is JESUS?' column where people can learn about who the JESUS of The Holy Bible is and learn how to connect to Him as their personal SAVIOR.

August of 2003 was the beginning of our teen outreach newspaper 'GroovinTeens' and the website

My question regarding UNRWA eventually led to President Trump defunding UNRWA because of misusing U.S. funds for terrorism.

InterMountain Rescue Mission Testimonies

UTAH

From Rescue Mission of Salt Lake, Salt Lake City, Utah

Jon's story

Editors note: From time to time we like to bring you updates of men and women who have already shared their life story in the Rescuer. This month we share an update from Jon Anderson who came to the Rescue Mission in 2014 and now lives in Kennewick (Tri-Cities), Washington.

In 2014, I had $20 in my pocket, three bags of clothes, and was standing on the sidewalk in front of the Rescue Mission. I had never been homeless before and had, up until that point, held down steady jobs in the broadcasting industry for over 25 years. A family member had just dropped me off at the Rescue Mission – I had literally been kicked to the curb because I couldn't stop drinking and taking advantage of my family.

After contemplating my fate for a few hours, I walked into the Rescue Mission. I had designs on asking the people there for money. Little did I know I would end up spending the next year of my life at the Rescue Mission as a member of the New Life Program.

Once I joined the New Life Program, I felt like God started working in my life. When I first started the program I couldn't understand the Bible studies, even though I was raised in church. Instead, I was confused.

But the more I went to class the more I started to understand. I realized who God was and grew into a closer relationship with Him. I found myself actually wanting to obey Him, and actually wanting to stay sober. Learning about the Bible changed my desires in a way that I couldn't fully understand, and it also gave me the power to change.

When I graduated from the New Life Program a year later in 2015, I decided to move to Kennewick where my mother and brother lived. My mom (a 75-year-old nurse at the time) let me move in with her and I found a job as a master controller at a local television station. The master controller is the person who tells the camera operators what angles to shoot at and lets the crew know when the show is going to commercials, stuff like that.

It was a good job, but I worked the morning show, which meant I had to get up at 2 a.m. so we could go on air at 5 a.m. and then be done at 7 a.m. The hours started to wear me out, so I shifted to a job as a security officer at the local courthouse.

That move made me feel more stable, working normal hours at a place I enjoyed. Last July, however, two of my coworkers and friends both experienced fatal heart attacks. One coworker was at home when it happened, but the other happened at work. I watched the paramedics come to the courthouse and try to revive my friend, but he didn't make it.

Witnessing his death traumatized me. I had experienced a near heart attack several years ago and went through daily fear that I would have an attack and die too. It was hard for me to go back to work or even make it through the day. But instead of turning back to alcohol I went to my doctor. He was able to give me some medication that helped.

But what I really had to do to get back to work was turn to God. Every day I get up an hour or two early before I go to work and have my devotion with God and pray. I tell people that the experience has brought me closer to God than I have ever been before. I share with people that I need Him on my best days and my worst days and all the days in between.

God has blessed me as I have depended more and more on Him. I have been promoted to Head of Security for the Justice Center here in the Tri-Cities. It's a great job and has allowed me to get a place of my own. Well, it's not really my own. My mother, who is 82 now, lives with me. It is a blessing to be able to take care of her and provide a place for her to live, just like she did for me seven years ago and for much of my life. She has a hard time getting around, but I feel good that she can live with family instead of in a retirement center.

Another neat thing that happened was that just last year my daughter started communicating with me again. I was not a good father to her in many ways, but always wanted to reconnect with her if I could. I would send her texts or social media messages every so often, but she wouldn't respond. But last year she finally sent me a message and now we talk two or three times a week through texts and pictures of my grandkids.

My son also came up to visit me recently and stayed for a few days. It was the first time I had seen either of my kids face-to-face in many years. Soon I will have seven grandchildren and even though they live in Utah, and I haven't had a chance to spend much time with them, I do enjoy seeing pictures and videos as they grow up.

God has radically changed my life since that day I was kicked to the Rescue Mission's curb. He used the New Life Program to bring me to faith in Him and has used that faith to get me through some very hard times since. But through my relationship with Him I have hope for the future.

Please pray that God would continue to help me with my anxiety. I do at times get lonely living alone with my mother and would love to find companionship again. So pray that God, if it is His will, might have a wife out there for me. Most of all I want to thank you, the supporters of the Rescue Mission. Thank you for helping to make a place where the most desperate people in Utah, like I once was, can come and experience a new life. Your support helped get me off the streets and into faith, sobriety, employment, and a home of my own.

WYOMING

From Central Wyoming Rescue Mission, Casper, Wyoming

Chris's story

When her marriage of nearly 30 years ended, Chris was heartbroken... and lost. She moved to Casper to live with her daughter, but the arrangement fell apart - damaging their relationship and deepening her despair. She found a job and stayed with coworkers and other acquaintances until she'd worn out her welcome and run out of options.

Finally, with nowhere to lay her head - and unsure where her life was headed - she came to Wyoming

Rescue Mission. "I'd never been in a homeless shelter in my life," she says, unaware that we offer so much more than a bed.

"They help you with everything," she found, initially referring to essentials like food, clothing and hygiene items. After joining our Discipleship Program, however, she realized her whole life was being transformed.

While she'd once had a relationship with God, her struggles and hardships had made her angry and bitter.

Through our faith-based classes and guidance from our Christ-filled staff, her heart began to heal... she forgave those who'd hurt her... and her walk with the Lord was restored.

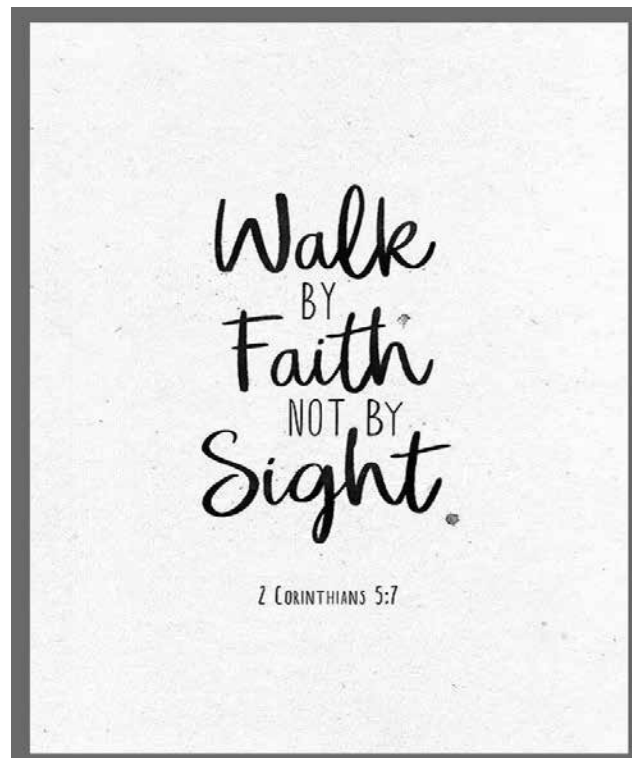

"A lot of people have said to me, 'You've changed since you've been here,' and I feel the difference," she says.

Now completing the final phase of our program, Chris is looking forward to returning to school to study medical billing and coding- and to find a job and housing. She's grateful for the resources she has received through WRM's partnerships in the community and the friendships she has built with other women in our care.

And she's especially pleased to have her daughter back in her life. "We go out for coffee and talk," Chris says. "It's nice to be able to do that again."

Chris is thankful for the kindness and compassion of loving neighbors like you - and how you have given her peace and hope. "I'm grateful for the Mission giving me a home and everything that goes with it. My future looks bright and I feel blessed for sure."

News Trip to Israel

by IMCNews Editor Dr. Harper

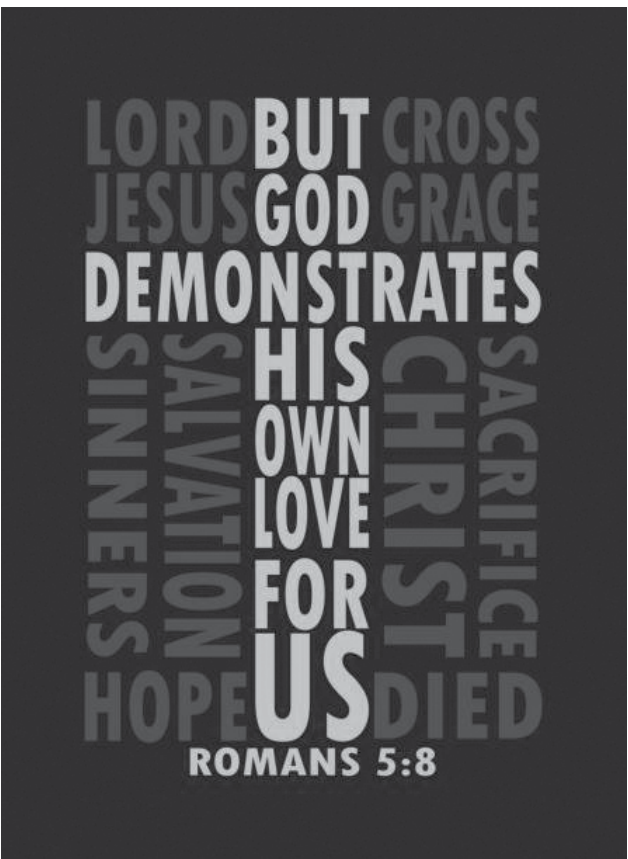

Pictured above with Israel Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu who I was introduced to May 8, 2017 by Israel MK leader Sharren Haskel regarding my White House questions concerning the Anti-Semitic U.N. agency UNRWA

(BOISE, Id)--White House Correspondent Dr. Harper here with the InterMountain Christian News. I've been informed that President Biden is expected to go to Jerusalem, Israel in July of this year and is expected to pressure Israel to accept a Palestinian Consulate in Jerusalem and promote his Two State Solution to divide Jerusalem and all of Israel.

Since I serve at the White House as the principal investigative journalist reporting on Anti-Semitism and Israel U.S. Relations, I will need your help with support in traveling there. Thank GOD I was called on by President Trump's press secretary Sean Spicer and as able to ask a question in a White House press meeting regarding the Anti-Semitic U.N. agency UNRWA. That question went viral and was featured on a Jerusalem television station January 25, 2017, eventually leading to President Trump defunding UNRWA as a result of that question and the investigation following. Warning on Dividing Israel by White House Correspondent and IMCNews Editor Dr. M. Anthony Harper

June 9, 2022

Proposed Jared Kushner Vision of Peace Plan and The Myth of Palestine

Proposed Jared Kushner Vision of Peace Plan and The Myth of Palestine

(BOISE, Id)-- The root of Anti-Semitism is found in viewing Israel as the Occupier and supporting dividing Israel up with a Palestinian state. Supporting the division of Israel to establish a Palestinian state is a way of cursing Israel.

The Roman Emperor Hadrian created the myth of Palestine to insult the Jews and disconnect them from their land. Read the following Jerusalem Post article about this matter by clicking on the following link:

<https://m.jpost.com/blogs/dont-fence-me-in/who-invented-palestine-hadrian-442741/amp>

The GOD of Israel's anger is expressed towards those that divide up the land of Israel.

Read the warning in the Prophet Joel 3:2:

"I will gather all the nations And bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat. Then I will enter into judgment with them there On behalf of My people and My inheritance, Israel, Whom they have scattered among the nations; And they have divided up My land." NASB

The GOD of Israel expresses His following command regarding Israel:

Genesis 12:3:

"And I will bless those who bless you [Israel], And the one who curses you I will curse. And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed." NASB of our admiration and support for their decision to serve their country at a young age," Lamborn said. "It is unfortunate that political leadership in the U.S. Department of Defense is seeking to penalize these brave Americans by preventing them from graduating or serving in the military. They are even considering asking them to pay back hundreds of thousands in tuition. It is an honor to stand up for the constitutional rights of these young men and women, and I look forward to introducing this bill in the U.S. House of Representatives."

Specifically, the Defending Freedom of Conscience for Cadets and Midshipmen Act would:

Clarify that cadets and midshipmen cannot be denied graduation for not being vaccinated against COVID-19;

Prevent cadets and midshipmen from being dismissed from their service academy as a result of refusing to be vaccinated (i.e. for disciplinary reasons for refusing the order to be vaccinated); and Prevent any cadet who is not allowed to commission due to their COVID-19 vaccination status from being subject to repayment claims.

“Promoting Jean-Pierre further proves the point that the Democrat party has become a breeding ground of anti-Israel hostility that goes right up to the White House,” Cohanin added.

“As a child of Holocaust survivors and as an American Jew, I am both appalled and frightened that Biden has chosen as his principal deputy press secretary, Ms. Jean-Pierre, who has shown essentially antisemitic hostility toward Israel and is willing to lie about and vilify Israel and Jews to promote her ugly Israelophobic agenda,” Mort Klein, CEO of the Zionist Organization on America, said in a statement.

“Americans should be deeply concerned that this outrageous, incomprehensible anti-Israel, pro-terrorist and pro-Iran appointment indicates the dangerous direction the Biden administration is going to take against America’s greatest ally Israel and U.S.-Israel relations,” Klein said.

One veteran pro-Israel community leader expressed shock that the president decided to hire Jean-Pierre.

“Jewish Americans will get slapped in the face every time they turn on the television and see someone standing at the podium who has said such vile things about Israel,” said the source, who would only speak candidly on background. “Just days after the [Anti-Defamation League] boldly declared anti-Zionism is anti-Semitism, the forces of radical left anti-Semitism got a boost from the President of the United States.”

MoveOn, the far-left group that Jean-Pierre worked for from April 2016 until August 2020, also pressed Democratic lawmakers to boycott AIPAC’s annual conference, as well as the organization itself. “[Democratic] candidates should be prepared for push back regarding their involvement with AIPAC,” a MoveOn spokeswoman told Politico in 2020.

MoveOn also has championed anti-Israel leaders in Congress, including Reps. Ilhan Omar (D., Minn.) and Rashida Tlaib (D., Mich.), who were the organization’s first endorsements in the 2020 election cycle.

The group also ran interference for Omar and Tlaib when they were accused of making anti-Semitic statements and stoking hatred of Jews. Democrats, the group said in 2019, “must stand strong in solidarity with Reps. Tlaib, Omar—stand up to Israel right-wing government for doing Trump’s racist, political dirty work.”

And when far-left activist Linda Sarsour was criticized for anti-Semitism, MoveOn came to her defense, tweeting that she “is a leader in the fight for justice for all of us.” MoveOn also defended Angela Davis, the notorious communist activist, as a “civil rights leader” after an award was revoked due to her anti-Semitic past.

Biden praised Jean-Pierre as a “talent” in a statement on the new hire.

“Karine not only brings the experience, talent and integrity needed for this difficult job, but she will continue to lead the way in communicating about the work of the Biden-Harris administration on behalf of the American people,” the president said in a statement. “Jill and I have known and respected Karine a long time and she will be a strong voice speaking for me and this administration.”

Update May 6, 11:53 a.m.: This piece has been updated to include comment from CNN.

Update May 10, 12:35 p.m.: A previous version of this piece reported that Karine Jean-Pierre and Suzanne Malveaux are married, which has not been confirmed.

graduation ceremony.

“That has been confirmed and is petty, vindictive, disrespectful and unnecessary,” Mr. Rose, who represents unvaccinated cadet Jameson Barnard, said via email.

An Air Force Academy spokesperson was not immediately able to verify Mr. Rose’s claim but said they would investigate.

Originally, four senior cadets, known as “firsties,” refused the vaccine on religious grounds. Their requests for exemptions were denied, however, and one cadet took the job.

“This is a punishment for their religion,” Gordon James Klingenschmitt, a former Colorado state representative and a former Navy chaplain told The Washington Times earlier this week. “It’s not about the vaccine. It’s about their religious conscience and their politically incorrect Christian beliefs. It’s a religious purge by the Biden administration,” he said at the time...

Mikey Weinstein, founder and president of the misnamed Military Religious Freedom Foundation, called for prison and court-martials to punish religion.

He said via email, “These 3 USAF Academy cadets should be immediately charged and prosecuted under [the Uniform Code of Military Justice’s] Article 92 for their wretched failure to obey the lawful order of the Secretary of Defense to receive the FDA-approved COVID vaccines. They should be aggressively tried via a General Court Martial and, if convicted, be imprisoned as well as being compelled to pay back the hundreds of thousands of dollars per cadet which American taxpayers have forked over for their expensive education.”

[Dr. Chaps’ comment: The Secretary of Defense Lloyd Austin, who will speak at the Academy graduation, is now breaking the law. Awarding 3 cadets their earned diplomas with no ceremony is unacceptable eye-wash, to save the Academy’s image, to hide the fact they are punishing 13 cadets for their religion. Can you imagine if they punished their skin color? It’s horrible!

Now last year’s 2021 graduate Lieutenants are calling me, saying they’re also being involuntarily separated and ordered to repay their past scholarship money, because they’re not permitted to complete their 5 year service obligation unless they compromise their religion. Combine this with nearly 4,000 servicemen being kicked out, many denied exemptions for their religious beliefs, in all branches of the service.

This is clearly a religious purge of Christians from the military by Lloyd Austin, who violates federal law, Title 10: “The Armed Forces shall accommodate the beliefs of a member of the armed forces reflecting the conscience, moral principles, or religious beliefs of the member and, in so far as practicable, may not use such beliefs as the basis of any adverse personnel action, discrimination, or denial of promotion, schooling, training, or assignment.”]

CALL SECDEF NOW: Call Secretary of Defense Lloyd Austin’s office TWICE at 703.692.7100 and 703.695.5135, and say “Let the Air Force Academy Cadets graduate, obey the law which requires religious accommodations.” Then call 866-Obey-God (option 3) for free Decal.

Please sign our petition to protect Christian troops and we will fax all 100 Senators (saving you time!) to PROTECT MILITARY CHAPELS, CHAPLAINS AND TROOPS RELIGIOUS FREEDOM to oppose immorality, restore the good chapel amendment from H.R. 4310.

Being a volunteer at this particular event, President Trump's Rally "Make America Great Again", confirmed the fact that our political beliefs and standards fight against the destruction of our culture and freedoms. This is crucial to the volunteers' regular daily life. It validates our winning President, who was coming for more than just an "in your face" with corruption or another topic, such as gun control. Though some may disagree, it is a fight to keep our culture standing for the Judeo-Christian beliefs that our forefather's fought to establish. This foundation is the Republican way summed up in the Wyoming GOP Platform of grassroots, pride, and belief — what we live by. (Please see <https://www.wyoming.gov/platform/2020> of the April 2022 Platform. Compare that to <https://www.donaldjtrump.com/about>.) This rally tapped into the heart and minds of our forefathers' ideas revealed in The Constitution of the United States.

I was informed that, at the rally which was held on Saturday, May 28 at the Ford Wyoming Center in Casper, nearly 10,000 persons were in attendance: at least 9,700 were in the building, and the others were outside awaiting the chance to get inside. A view of grand proportion!

Out-of-state speakers were Florida Rep. Matt Gaetz, Colorado Rep. Lauren Boebert, Arizona Rep. Andy Biggs, Florida Rep. Kat Cammack and "The Pillow Guy", Mike Lindell.

Along with Harriet Hageman, Wyoming speakers included Wyoming's GOP party chairman W. Frank Eathorne, Sen. Cheri Steinmetz, Rep. Chip Neiman, Rep. John Bear, and former National Committeewoman, Marti Halverson.

Video addresses were made by U.S. Representative and House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy, and Ohio Rep. Jim Jordan.

45th President Donald Trump didn't just endorse the Congressional candidate for Wyoming, Harriet Hageman, he also endorsed American values.

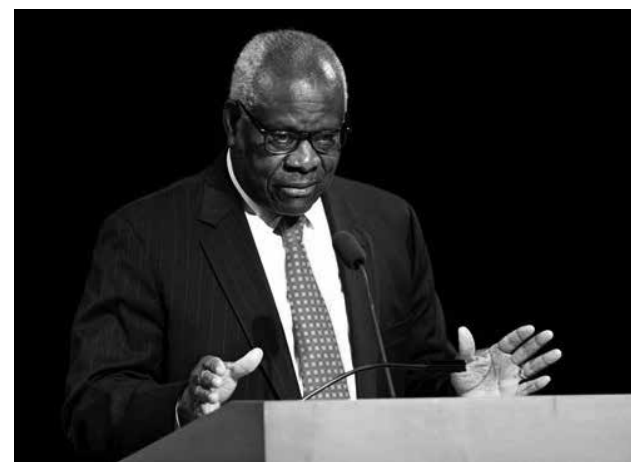

"Make America Great Again" is more than a slogan, it is the heart and soul of American life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Being a volunteer is just the beginning of making history.

to do so."

Not only does the Colorado law force Smith to violate her conscience, ADF argues the state law as written does not allow the business owner, on her own website, to state and explain her personal views.

Waggoner, Kristen (ADF) Waggoner

According to ADF, it hopes the nine justices will review the 2-1 ruling by the 10th Circuit and agree the federal judges made what the religious liberty law firm calls a terrible and unprecedented decision. ADF says the two judges agreed that Smith is exercising free speech when she designs a website but concluded Colorado has the right to limit her rights.

The dissenting judge on the 10th Circuit called the Colorado law "Orwellian diktat," and ADF is hoping the nation's highest court will agree.

"I am hopeful," Smith tells AFN, "that they will rule in favor of free speech for all artists and ultimately for everyone."

ensure a peaceful conclusion to the holy season of Ramadan now and he also affirmed our unwavering support for Israel and its defense needs and welcomed the historic one billion dollar allocation to replenish Israel’s iron dome system.

Dr. Harper Question to Press Secretary Psaki April 7, 2022:

In view of continued Palestinian violence against innocent civilians, is the Biden administration willing to stop payments to the Anti-Semitic U.N. agency UNRWA and support restoring the Jewish cemetery in Vilnius, Lithuania to its former glory? Watch this interchange at the following YouTube video link:

Press Secretary Psaki response:

Again I think I don’t have any changes to announce to our policy. I spoke to our condemnation of the violence just now as last and last week as well and noted also our call to the Prime Minister.

I knew this was a supernatural fight, and I had to do something to protect my daughter. The only way I knew to save her was to take my life. My daughter would then be adopted by a normal family who could show her a way of life that I never could.

I remember going out to a remote area in a field and sitting in the front seat of my car. As I sat there, I was sobbing and leaned my seat back. I had a razor blade in one hand, and my other hand fell to the side in between my seat and my console. I felt something. I picked it up, and it was a Testament from The Gideons.

I had gotten my car from a drug dealer. I knew he wasn’t a Christian, and I had never seen this Testament in the several years I had been driving the car. I started thumbing through the Testament, and I put the razor blade down. I got to the back pages and saw a sample prayer. I read the prayer aloud, and I gave my life to Jesus Christ that day—I have never been the same!

All the way home to pick up my daughter, I was reciting this prayer—I must have said it 25 times. It’s the only prayer I knew, but I kept saying it over and over because it brought me such comfort. The love that I had searched for all my life was just one prayer away. At that moment, I felt a passion in my heart that I had never experienced. I knew that God was close. I went home and grabbed my little girl with so much excitement.

The next day, I called my former father-in-law. He was the only person I knew who was remotely connected to Christianity. He knew I was in a spiritual battle; this was not a physical battle that I could fight. He said, “Please come to Texas; I want you to be part of our fellowship. You are going to need a family of God to support you and teach you how to fight this war.” The next day, he paid for our ticket to Texas. We stayed with him and his wife for about three years. I was like a sponge absorbing God’s Word.

I left everything behind. My family had excommunicated me because I was serving Jesus. I knew I had to sacrifice everything—my car, apartment, and all that I owned. I was fearful because I had no idea what to expect, but I knew I did not want to return to my old lifestyle. I had the Holy Spirit living in me, my daughter in my arms, and I was ready to sacrifice everything I needed for Jesus. From this point on, God was working behind the scenes the whole time. He was preparing a godly man for me, one familiar with helping people coming out of occult backgrounds. He and I ended up getting married in 2005. We now pastor a church in Garland, Texas, ministering to people who have similar backgrounds as myself.

My daughter is now almost 31 years old, and she has never cast a spell in her life. She is our worship leader; her husband is our youth pastor. I am a first-generation Christian. My daughter is the second generation, and her children are just going to carry that on until the end of time. We no longer live under those generational curses because God has redeemed us. If it were not for God using The Gideons International, I would not be here—it is only by His grace.
