Who is JESUS? Connecting to Him as The Jewish MESSIAH

by IMCNews Editor Rev. M. Anthony Harper, Ph.D.

December 21, 2021

(BOISE, Id)—The Old Testament records a number of pre-Bethlehem appearances of CHRIST JESUS (commonly referred to as Theophanies or Christophanies).

A Theophany or Christophany is a visible appearance of God in the Old Testament period, often, but not always, in human form. The Pre-Incarnate CHRIST JESUS (physically visible and interactive appearances in the Old Testament as The LORD GOD, MELCHIZEDEK possibly, The LORD, GOD, or as an ANGEL OF THE LORD).

Every Christophany or Theophany in the Old Testament wherein God takes on human form foreshadows the incarnation, where God took the form of a man to live among us as Emmanuel, "God with us" (KJV Matthew 1:18-25:

"18. Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. 19. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily. 20. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. 21. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. 22. Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, 23. Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God

The Gateway Pundit wrote about Dr. Anthony Harper in September during the fall of Afghanistan and the thousands of stranded Americans on the ground there.

Dr. Harper is an investigative journalist with the Intermountain Christian News and Israel news service 'Newsrael.' In September Dr. Harper described how the Biden White House press office started giving him a hard time by restricting his access to the Press Secretary Jennifer Psaki's office after he started asking difficult questions on Biden's historic disaster in Afghanistan. Dr. Harper has been given a permanent White House hard press pass.

Dr. Harper, who has been reporting from the White House for several years, now must have an escort before he addresses Jen Psaki in her office.

Now Dr. Anthony Harper is being pressured by the White House and liberal media inside the room to be vaccinated against his will.

Earlier today at the White House briefing room Dr. Harper was harassed for not being vaccinated.

Here is the transcript:

Brian Karem: Six feet Anthony. You're not vaxxed. I love

Pictured at left with Israel Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu who I was introduced to May 8, 2017 by Israel MK leader Sharren Haskel regarding my White House questions concerning the Anti-Semitic U.N. agency UNRWA

With growing Anti-Semitism on the rise in our nation and world including the White House, it is hoped that all members of Congress as well as all U.S. state leaders along with the White House and our courts will incorporate the following working definition of Anti-Semitism into all their statutes and communication for in Prophet Joel 3:2 The GOD of Israel is angry at all those that divide up His land:

Working definition of Anti-Semitism

"I oppose all forms of Anti-Semitism, including but not limited to dividing Israel with the establishment of a Palestinian state, assault of Jewish people, business deals with Iran, BDS, funding of Anti-Semitic U.N. agencies like UNRWA and others; defacing Jewish places of worship, business, monuments as well as desecration of cemeteries in Vilnius, Lithuania and elsewhere by building over the graves of the Jewish people. I seek to restore the Jewish cemetery in Vilnius, Lithuania as well as all other Jewish cemeteries to their former glory with gravestones and a fence according to Jewish law and tradition, for no restoration is desecration and violation of religious and human rights of the Jewish nation and especially the descendants of those buried there."

ACSI Launches the Great Commission Project and Strategic Partnership with Joshua Expeditions

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 2, 2021 /Christian Newswire/

The Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) is partnering with faith-based global travel organization, Joshua Expeditions, to advance the Great Commission Project—a mobilization effort for thousands of member school students to share their faith. ACSI President Dr. Larry Taylor believes this partnership will provide ACSI students, faculty, and parents life-changing experiences.

"Teaching Matthew 28:18-20 and Acts 1:8, the biblical directive of the Great Commission, is vital, but leaving the classroom and chapel lessons and serving Christ in the field is transformational," he said. "It ignites the hearts of the people hearing and responding to the gospel as well as the students sharing the good news of Jesus Christ."

Both organizations share a common mission to help students grow in their relationship with Christ and to share the gospel across the globe.

Joshua Expeditions CEO Amir Mahadi looks forward to the impact this opportunity will have on hundreds of students." As Christians, we are called to take the gospel to every corner of the world," he said. "We're elated to join another Christ-centered nonprofit organization in combining our ministry resources to accomplish the Great Commission through ACSI's global outreach."

Destinations will initially include Uganda, Nigeria,

Hungary and the Dominican Republic. Several other locations in Latin and South America, Asia Pacific Region and the 10/40 window will be added in the future. Although the pandemic restrictions will limit the launch, both organizations are preparing the logistical details.

Joshua Expeditions will also enhance this global travel by offering high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors dual-credit college courses. Students will be able to select from five course options including Humanities/Aesthetics, Oral Communications, Christianity, and Culture, Spanish 101, and English Composition.

Taylor is passionate about equipping students with the wisdom and tools they need to be ambassadors for Christ.

"The Great Commission is a commandment for this generation just as it was for the disciples when Jesus first spoke the words," he shared. "ACSI is honored and excited to partner with Joshua Expeditions for this cause." # As Christian News Northwest Founder Retires, the Newspaper Gets New Leadership

A 1994 journalism graduate of the University of Oregon, Hirsch founded the Sun in 2007. His earlier journalism experience included stints as production manager and managing editor for the Depoe Bay Beacon, a semi-monthly newspaper published for many years on the central Oregon coast, and as production manager of the Printer's NW Trader, a monthly magazine that served the print industry.

His interest in print journalism began in his youth; his parents owned and operated Jiffy Print in Portland, which later became Praise Printing in a nod to the company's focus on printing for Christian schools, colleges and ministries — ministries that included CNNW. Hirsch began working in various capacities at Jiffy Print when he was just 14.

Fortmeyer is concluding 45 consecutive years of newspaper work throughout Oregon and Washington, including the past 27 and ½ years at Christian News Northwest. A 1977 communications graduate of Seattle Pacific University, where he edited the campus paper his senior year, he then spent 18 years as a reporter or editor for small dailies or weeklies in Ontario, Astoria and Portland in Oregon, and in Anacortes, Wash., before establishing CNNW.

"I can't quite believe the time has arrived, but after four and a half decades of headlines and deadlines, I am concluding what has been a fulfilling and challenging lifelong career," said Fortmeyer.

"But without a doubt, my greatest fulfillment has been serving much of the Pacific Northwest since 1994 with a newspaper focusing on God's work in the region. I have been grateful for that privilege, and also for the countless NEWBERG, Ore. — Effective with the December 2021 issue, Christian News Northwest founding publisher and editor John Fortmeyer of Newberg has retired and the newspaper is in new hands — longtime Oregon journalist Tim Hirsch is at the helm.

Hirsch, who also publishes the bi-weekly Pacific City Sun (pacificcitysun.com) in Tillamook County, has wonderful friends I have made doing this newspaper and who have prayerfully supported our efforts."

Fortmeyer said he is delighted Hirsch is taking the helm.

"Tim and his wife Vicky are dedicated followers of Christ and my wife Sandy and I have been very pleased to get to know them as we have prepared this past year for this transition. Tim is a talented, experienced newspaperman who knows the industry at its most impactful way — at the local, community level. I believe he will do a great job with CNNW."

"Using my God-given journalism talents in a Christian setting has long been my goal," Hirsch said. In fact, one day having the resources to shepherd a Christian publication was part of the long-range goal when I started the Sun nearly 15 years ago. I've been a reader of CNNW virtually since the beginning and consider it a blessing to be given a chance to share my passion for the Lord in this way. I hope to carry on the great work that John has tarried in for such a long time, and look forward to working with the Pacific Northwest Christian community."

Christian News Northwest is a regional monthly available for free at about 1,900 locations throughout Portland, Salem, Eugene-Springfield, Bend, Vancouver and dozens of other communities throughout western and central Oregon and southwest Washington. It is also available by mail subscription for $25 in the U.S., $30 elsewhere.

Hirsch said although there will be some changes in the newspaper's format, there will be no change in CNNW's emphasis on local news tailored toward the evangelical Christian community.

Christian News Northwest's new Portland-area address and mailing address is 710 E. Foothills Drive, Suite 103C, Newberg, OR 97132.

CHRISTmas Greeting to the White House

by IMCNews editor Dr. Harper

Here following is a message about JESUS I sent to the White House:

Dec 8, 2021, 8:31 PM

Subject: Merry CHRISTmas greeting and news update

Your White House journalist friend Dr. Harper here with the InterMountain Christian News to let you know of our Christian audience and my prayers for Merry CHRISTmas blessings to President Biden, Vice President Harris and all their staff and their families.

The Museum of the Bible in Washington, D.C. has a special CHRISTmas presentation this year and I and our newspaper offer a FREE personal individual tour for any of the Biden administration who would like to join me. For those interested, please RSVP a request with interest. Click on following link to the Museum of the Bible:

Our audience is convinced that in our world of unrest that only The KING of PEACE [JESUS (YESHUA)] can bring peace to our troubled hearts. They want me to share their favorite following Holy Bible verses with you from:

John 3:16:

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish, but have eternal life." (NASB)

Prophecies of The MESSIAH

Isaiah 9:6:

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace." (KJV)

InterMountain Rescue Mission Testimonies

UTAH
From Rescue Mission of Salt Lake, Salt Lake City, Utah

Nicole's story

About a year ago, I had a mental breakdown that landed me in the hospital.

It was the culmination of three years of living on the streets, using drugs, and being abused. As the hospital staff treated my psychosis, I was as low as a person could be. Many of my teeth had fallen out from years of drug addiction and street life and I looked as bad on the outside as I felt on the inside.

After three days, the hospital released me with a taxi voucher. I don't recall much, just getting into the cab, which eventually dropped me off at the Rescue Mission's Women's Center. I had never been there before, but I knocked on the front door.

They took me in and admitted me to the New Life Recovery Program. I truly believe it was God's hand that caused that taxi driver to drop me off at the Rescue Mission. It couldn't have been a random coincidence.

At the Rescue Mission I was welcomed into a loving home. Everything was provided for me and the people there related to me and seemed to genuinely care. At the time, I knew nothing about God. I had never been to church before. This was the first place I had ever heard about a loving, caring God.

Finding a place that teaches the truth about God in a loving way, especially when you are super broken, is an experience that is almost impossible for me to explain. I now know that Jesus graciously died for all my sins and that by believing in Him, I can be forgiven and have new life on this Earth and be welcomed into Heaven one day.

God has healed me in so many ways as I have gained a relationship with him and worked through recovery meetings and counseling.

When I was 14, I was diagnosed with a significant mental illness that was treated by medication. Throughout my life I have struggled with the illness, even being institutionalized on a couple of occasions.

Today, for the first time in my life since I was 14, I do not take one drug for mental illness and have no symptoms requiring medication. I believe that God has healed me.

God also generously provided me with free dentures. There are a couple of nonprofits the Rescue Mission works with that help provide dentures to formerly homeless men and women who have lost their teeth due to street living. Now, I have a great smile that almost gives me a new identity.

Having dentures gave me confidence when I entered the employment phase of the New Life Program. I had a few interviews for jobs that I didn't get, which was discouraging, but I was trusting that God would provide.

One day I was taking the TRAX train to Draper where I had an interview. I started praying that God would lead me to the job He wanted for me. When I looked out through the train window I saw a van for a local plumbing and HVAC company. I took note that it was the first thing I saw after my prayer.

When I got home, I looked the company up online and called to ask if they were hiring. They said they were and about a month ago they hired me. I do scheduling and customer service, and even though I have only worked there a month, am now training new people.

Another way God has provided for me is through my home church, Capital Church. I love the people, and the signing, and the Bible teaching. One of our pastors recently lost a family member to COVID and it was amazing to see how his family trusted and stayed close to God through that difficult experience. It gave me courage that I could go through hard things in life and still trust God.

I am currently saving up money so that when I graduate from the New Life Program I can move into the Hope House, the Rescue Mission's transitional housing unit for women. There I will pay rent and have more freedom as I continue to take steps towards getting back to "normal" life.

One thing I would appreciate your prayers for is my son. I have a seven-year-old boy who lives with my mom back in rural Nevada, where I am from.

My mom has had legal guardianship over my son ever since he was little and my son believes that my mother is his mom. My mother has told me that my son does not know that I exist. I believe that my mother wants to continue acting as his mother, perhaps for his whole life.

I would like to be part of my son's life, but it is a difficult situation and it's hard to know what to do or how I should try to have a relationship with him and my mom. So please pray that God would open doors and bring healing and clarity to my family relationships.

I know the biggest thing for me is making sure I am on the right track to stay sober for my life. As I anticipate moving into Hope House, my goals are to maintain good employment and stay connected to my recovery community.

Additionally, I look forward to having good, clean sober fun! I want to go to a concert. I have never taken a vacation so I would love to do that as well. I am also trying to save up money for a car, once I get my Utah's driver's license.

When I came to the Rescue Mission I had nothing. No birth certificate, no social security card, no ID, not one piece of identifying information. I couldn't even prove who I was. It was as if I was nobody. The Rescue Mission graciously worked with me to get all those documents back so I could be a functioning member of society and have an identity again, including a true identity in Christ.

Thank you so much for supporting the Rescue Mission. I needed a place where I could learn about God and experience His life-changing grace and love. Your support has helped change and save my life and I am forever grateful!

Allison's story

Not long after she was married, Allison learned the husband she'd met online – and grown to love deeply – wasn't the man she believed him to be.

"He turned controlling and abusive, mentally, physically, emotionally," she explains. He took away her cell phone... isolated her from loved ones... and repeatedly threatened to kill her.

Finally, in a crime too horrific for words, he took her mother's life and forced Allison to flee with him. The couple was apprehended and held in jail. Although Allison was innocent, it was the situation she needed to be freed from her captor. When authorities released her, she came to our doors, grief-stricken, traumatized and longing to build a new life.

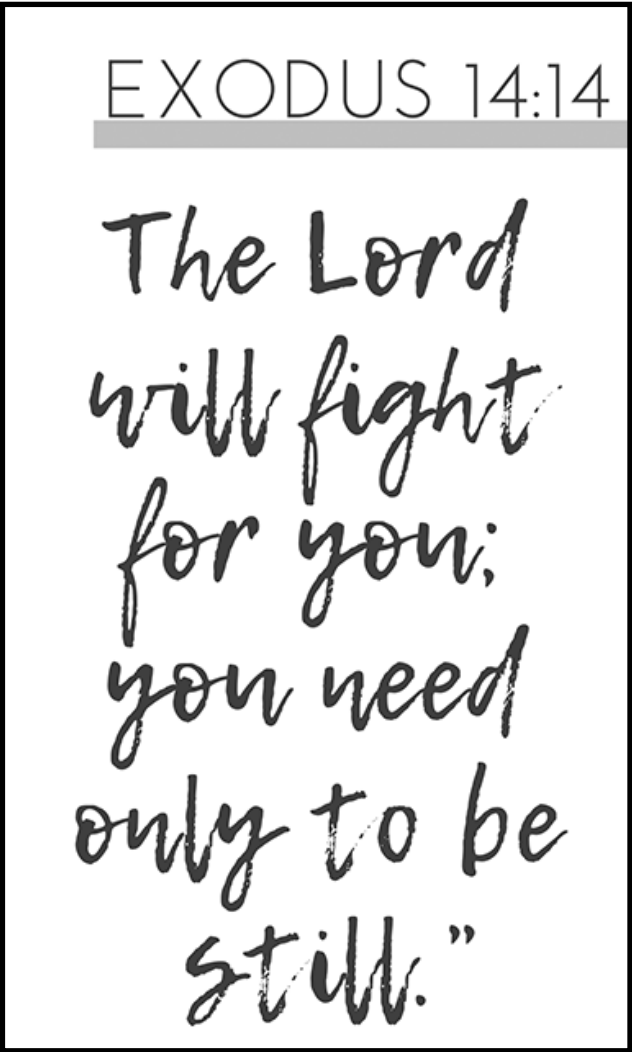

"I'm so blessed to be part of this program and I know my mom is proud of me."

Allison joined our Discipleship Recovery Program, where through faith-based classes and the compassion of our counselors, she's embracing God's love, living by His Word and allowing Him to heal her heart. "I take personal time for myself every day to pray," she says. Most important to her recovery is understanding her mother is in God's hands. "I would do anything to have her back with me, but I know she's with the Lord and she's happy. She was a very godly woman."

As Allison regains her confidence and peace of mind, she feels God calling her to help other women who have experienced abusive relationships. "I want to share my story to inspire them if they feel lost or hopeless. God is there for them and they will prosper from a relationship with Him. That's what happened to me."

While the holidays are difficult without her mother by her side, Allison is so grateful to you for the wonderful gift of a new life. "I'm very blessed and thankful because I have her spirit in me and I know God has a plan for me."

Prayer

Please join us in praying as a small team travels to Cuba over Christmas. We are praying that this trip would be a blessing to all those involved.

Please continue to pray for Safe Haven home in Pakistan. They are still looking for a home to move into. This search has been difficult but we still believe that God has something better in store for them.

Praise

Praise God! Our 2022 Prayer Calendars will be delivered over the next few weeks! Thank you to all our volunteers who helped with this project! Keep an eye out for yours and join us as we start the new year in prayer!

Praise God! We are thankful to have heard from some contacts in Myanmar recently that they are safe and doing well at this time. We continue to pray for the situation there.

Updates

We are preparing a pallet of supplies to assist those who have been affected by recent tornadoes here in the US. Click here for a list of needed items that can be sent to our Casper office. **At this time we ask that you please refrain from donating clothing.

"And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee..."
- Genesis 12:3 (KJV)

We believe that the Jewish people have a right to live in their ancient land of Israel, and that the modern State of Israel is the fulfillment of this historic right.

We maintain that there is no excuse for acts of terrorism against Israel and that Israel has the same right as every other nation to defend her citizens from such violent attacks.

We pledge to stand with our brothers and sisters in Israel and to speak out on their behalf whenever and wherever necessary until the attacks stop and they are finally living in peace and security with their neighbors.

The Scriptures promise blessings upon those who love the nation of Israel, and CUFI has prayerfully searched for a way to honor and bless those who have chosen to be part of this holy move of God.

Merry Christmas from Idaho Lt. Gov. Janice McGeachin!

Dear Friends,

As 2021 began, Idahoans believed we had reached the pinnacle of destruction in our communities and our children's lives from the worldwide pandemic. As a new administration took over in the nation's capital, it became clear that the agenda of big government was gleefully being seized by the new progressive movement in power. Across the nation, centuries of failed suffocating control is being held at bay by a small but powerful contingent of conservative local leaders and their determined citizens.

Today we have reason for celebration, as the biggest spending bill in our history has been defeated by cooler heads and a dose of reality. A single victory that will have an incalculable impact on our future. But the state of our world today leaves many feeling the frustration of injustice.

Many of you are warriors in the battle for our country, as well as the spirit of our people. Yet even the most dedicated warriors need a time of respite. At this most special time of the year, we should embrace our loved ones and cherish the birth of our Savior. There will be time ahead for the fight.

Christmas is intended to celebrate the greatest gift mankind ever received. Isaiah 7:14 says the Lord Himself will give you a sign. The virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and he shall be called Immanuel.

John 1:14 says the Word became flesh and dwelt among us. 2nd Corinthians 9:15, Thanks be to God for his incredible Gift. Throughout the Word of God, the importance of this Gift is declared over and over.

In our everyday language, hope is a reflection of uncertainty, we hope something will happen, but we are not certain. To Christians, hope is a promise, a belief that God will do what He has said He would do.

So, as an Idahoan and as a Christian, I look forward with hope. The hope of those who have read the Book and know how the story ends. The hope of those who realize the true meaning of the Christmas season – Our Lord Jesus Christ.

With this understanding, we stand on the Hope, and that Hope will carry us. We celebrate the Gift, and that Gift will sustain us.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from the McGeachin family.

Sincerely,

Lt. Governor Janice McGeachin

A pro-Israel advocate sees “haunting parallels” in Germany between the current COVID-19 crisis and the 1930s.

One of the ways Germans who refuse to take the mandated inoculations are being ostracized is that yellow painted signs reading, “DO NOT BUY FROM UNVAXXED” have appeared on store windows in the Central European country. In response, some protestors have started wearing yellow badges shaped like the Jewish Star of David with the inscription “unvaccinated,” drawing a comparison to the Nazis’ persecution of Jews during World War II.

Jan Markell (Olive Tree Ministries)

“I’ve said for almost a year that there are some haunting parallels between the 1930s and the 21st century here with this COVID crisis,” comments Jan Markell, founder and director of Olive Tree Ministries. “A new group of people in the 21st century are becoming the new untouchables, the new yellow-starred people. And that’s those who just choose for various reasons, and there are lots of reasons, to be unvaccinated for COVID.”

She confesses that she never thought she would see in her lifetime any sort of resurgence of what happened in the ‘30s, and she believes the whole pandemic fits into end times prophecy.

“Someday the unsaved left behind after the rapture are going to be depending on the Antichrist, and what I see is a conditioning right now for prepping people to trust the government with their major decisions,” Markell submits. “Right now that’s health and are they going to keep their jobs, but they have to comply in order to please the government.”

Markell says she is “shocked” at the thought of how many people are going to be truly left behind to go through the tribulation.

High Court to Consider Taking Another ‘Jack Phillips’-type Case

Chris Woodward

A Colorado web designer and her legal team are hopeful the U.S. Supreme Court decides to hear her case as she fights to defend the constitutional right to express her religious beliefs in the products she creates.

Lorie Smith is a website designer in Colorado, where state law prohibits her from being able to express custom website messages that would be supportive of her religious view on marriage between a man and a woman.

Kristen Waggoner is an attorney with Alliance Defending Freedom (ADF), the law firm representing Smith. Waggoner explains that Smith basically is facing the same type of penalties that cake artist Jack Phillips is facing in Colorado.

“The issue in Lorie’s case is whether artists and Americans have the right to be able to create custom art and expression that is consistent with their conviction,” the attorney shares, “or whether the government can compel them to say things that they don’t believe or silence them from saying things that they do believe.”

The case has been getting extra attention in recent days, following a settlement agreement last week that ended a 2013 lawsuit brought by the ACLU against Washington state floral artist Barronelle Stutzman. ADF also handled that case.

“That settlement does not include a change of Barronelle’s beliefs, it does not include a submission of her beliefs to the government or to the ACLU, and she has never once had to violate her conscience,” Waggoner shares.

“But at 77 she is going to retire and give her business to her employees – and she’s passing her legal torch on to Lorie Smith at 303 Creative.”

Smith’s case (303 Creative v. Elenis) could be heard before the U.S. Supreme Court soon. The high court will conference the case in early January and decide whether to hear arguments. Sixteen states, 45 members of Congress, and numerous legal scholars, economists, publishers, and media groups have filed friend-of-the-court briefs in support of the web designer.

If you would like to know JESUS CHRIST as your personal Savior from sin, pray the following prayer followed by studying The Holy Bible and get involved with a local Christian church.

Here is a sample prayer offered by the American Tract Society (www.attracts.org):

Pray this sincere prayer, meaning it with all your heart, and God will give you eternal life, right now!

“Dear Lord, I am a sinful person who needs You. I turn from my sins and surrender my heart and life to You, right now. Save me dear God and make me Your child. Thank You for coming to Bethlehem, and for dying for me to pay for my sins. Help me to live for You all the rest of my life.” Amen.

Recommendations below from www.wayofthemaster.com

Once you have repented of all sin (see Psalm 51, 1John 1:9), don’t doubt God’s promises. Doubt produces fear. It is also a great insult to God--if I don’t trust you, it means I think you are a liar.

Here’s a recipe for success:

- Read your Bible every day without fail. Every day.
- Value the Word more important than your food (see Psalm One).
- Obey what you read.
- Develop a tender conscience.
- Never doubt any of God’s promises.
- Obey the Great Commission by sharing your faith (see John 14:21). Check out The Way of

The Master website where there are resources on how to share your faith: www.wayofthemaster.com

Dr. M. Anthony Harper: Should vaccinated people be tested [for Covid]?

Brian Karem: Anthony, everyone can still get it. I don’t want to pass it to anyone else. Don’t mince or parse words here. You know damn well that anyone can still get it.
